GOODBYE, OLD YEAR

*Goodbye, Old Year, we part, but I shall keep
The memory of a happy walk with you;
For 'though sometimes the heavens were overcast,
There were many days when skies were blue.
And ever, whether skies were dark or fair,
There walked with me a gracious Presence there.*

*He kept His word. Remember how He said,
"Lo, I am with you alway"? Blessed word!
Each step, through light or shadow, joy or pain,
I knew the guiding hand of Christ the Lord.
So, unafraid, I welcomed each new day,
Knowing Who walked with me along the way.*

*Goodbye, Old Year, we part as old friends part –
An earnest handclasp, and a warm farewell.
The New Year waits to greet me, and I place
My hand in God's, with trust no tongue can tell.
For He who walked with me, my Guide shall be,
And in this New Year too, will walk with me.*
