HOPE

Some glorious morn – but when? Ah, who shall say?

The steepest mountain will become a plain,

And the parched land be satisfied with rain,

The gates of brass all broken; iron bars

Transfigured, form a ladder to the stars.

Rough places plain, and crooked ways all straight

For him who with a patient heart can wait.

These things shall be on God's appointed day.

It may not be tomorrow – yet it may.
